

2020 DSAA Spring Conference

New Orleans

4/17/20

8am – 9am

Dr. Bill Van Tassel, AAA Foundation- Demo of the new How to Drive curriculum

9:15am – 10:45am

Prince Boparai, United Driving School and TeachSafe– The first drive, building the proper foundation for a new driver

11am – 12pm

John Bolen, A Treasure Coast Driving School – Is 40 really moving that fast and how to teach new drivers "respect" for speed?

BIO: John Bolen is a part Owner and Director of Education and Curriculum for All Florida Safety Institute in North and Central Florida...AFSI has 18 locations and over 75 cars on the road daily.

Also owns with his son...A Treasure Coast Driving School which has 28 cars on the road daily in South Florida.

He owns and authored of one of only two curricula accepted by the State of Florida to train incoming commercial driving school instructors.

Recently retired 2 years ago and was a 30-year certified public school teacher in Physical Education K-12, Varsity football, wrestling, and baseball with an endorsement in Drivers Education.

John was the past Executive Vice President of Driving School Association of America's and current South Eastern United States Representative.

John also received the DSAA Leadership award in 2009, President's Award in 2016, and the HB Vinson Visionary Award in 2017 for his development of curriculum and online video programs to enhance the learning and instruction of Drivers Education instructors as well as enhancing overall student learning experiences.

His passion for teaching becomes obvious when you talk to him or attend one of his presentations.

12pm – 1pm

Lunch

1pm – 5pm

ANSTSE Workshop, (Association of National Stakeholders in Traffic Safety Education) – Dr. Bill Van Tassel, AAA Foundation, and Bud Chauncy, 1st Class Driving School, co-presenting -The role and use of on-board technologies and using vehicle technology in driver education

4/18/20

8am – 2:30pm Board Meeting